

NCHU 112th Academic Year Female Dormitory Parking Permit Waiting List Application Notice

1. Suitable object: All female dormitory residents who have not applied for the first batch of parking permit applications
2. Application time: from 113/02/01 (Thursday)
3. How to apply: fill in the following Google form
4. Waitlisting method: Sort according to the time when the form is completed and sent. After the waiting list confirmation is successful, you will be notified by phone call. If there is no response within three times, a text message will be sent. You must go to the service center to collect the parking permit within three working days after receiving the notification. If you do not collect it, your qualification will be released. No waiting for late-comers.
5. Things to note:
  - 1) Female dormitory residents who are not successful in the first batch of parking permit applications will be prioritized on the waiting list (refer to the attached table) and do not need to fill in the form. If your applications are repeated, the last application filling time will be used as the priority, which means the priority waiting list will be cancelled.
  - 2) Please confirm that the form is filled in correctly. If the information is incorrect, the form will be deemed as invalid.
  - 3) Each person is limited to apply for one permit (apply either motorcycle and bicycle) according to your needs. After the parking permit is applied for and issued, you must give up the original parking permit if you need to change the vehicle type, otherwise it will not be issued.
  - 4) Dormitory parking spaces are designated with designated parking spaces.

Students are kindly requested not to park illegally to avoid being fined.

- 5) According to Article 8 of the "Guidelines for the Management of Bicycles and Motorbikes in Student Dormitories of National Chung Hsing University":
"After the Service Committee locks the bicycle or motorbike and pastes a warning notice on the prominent place of the bicycle or motorbike, if no one claims it within 15 days, the Service Committee will report to the Dormitory Service Center for disposal according to Article 4." In case of illegal locking, students are kindly requested to unlock the vehicle as soon as possible.
