NCHU's Announcement on Undergraduate and Graduate Non-freshmen's Waitlist Application for Vacant Beds in the 113th Academic Year (Nantou Campus)

1. Period of waitlist application for vacant beds: The waitlist application for vacant beds will start at 9:00 a.m. on May 23, 2024 (Fri).
2. Applicant status: Students who have not participated in the application of the non-freshmen's vacant beds through drawing lots or failed to obtain a bed.
3. Application method: Please personally deliver, fax, or email the Nantou Dormitory Bed Application Form (available for download on the Residence Affairs Office website under Latest News) to the Nantou Dormitory Service Center for a dorm bed for the 113th academic year.
4. The service center will email students to confirm their bed allocation. If a student cannot be reached via email, they will be contacted via telephone. If a student cannot be reached after three attempts via telephone, failure to confirm within the specified deadline will be considered as forfeiture of the allocated bed. (This is only a reminder. No rights or interests will be lost due to failure to receive emails or text messages. Students must still take the initiative to check the results online.)
